Dear Alumni and Friends,

‘The Cape’ – Cape Cod, located in eastern Massachusetts is among New England’s favorite summer vacation destinations and it thrives on tourism, beautiful ocean beaches and small unique businesses. Travelers come to lose themselves amongst endless miles of windswept seashore, dune-studded landscapes, inshore forests and historic sights. Unpack and enjoy 6 Nights at One Hotel on ‘The Cape’ to experience its beauty and history while also visiting amazing Boston, mansion filled Newport, RI and via ferry the two most scenic and famous Islands off ‘The Cape’, Martha’s Vineyard & Nantucket.

The Cape’s recorded history starts with the Plymouth Pilgrims who first set foot in the New World at the tip of Cape Cod in 1620. The sight of the island of Nantucket coming into view from the bow of a ferry is a stirring one as lines of foaming breakers crash against vast stretches of sands on the shore while 17th century architecture dots the downtown horizon. Boston is one of America’s oldest cities, first incorporated as a town in 1630 with a rich economic and social history. Boston today is the economic and cultural hub of New England yet retains its rich history in education, arts, culture, cuisine and architecture. The island of Martha’s Vineyard is only seven miles off the coast of Massachusetts, but a world all its own. ‘The Vineyard’ is a true island as there are no bridges from the mainland, and most visitors arrive by ferry or plane. Explore the seaside city of Newport, RI famous for its historic mansions and an upscale downtown filled with cobblestone streets & brick sidewalks. Enjoy these wonderful New England sights during your 7 day adventure from your home base on ‘The Cape’.

Please review the itinerary details and inclusions with roundtrip airfare. We are pleased to share this departure with alumni from Baylor, Indiana, Purdue & Kentucky and hope you can join us. Space is limited, call today to reserve your spot!
