Symphony
on the Blue Danube

Prague ♦ Passau ♦ Melk ♦ Dürnstein
Vienna ♦ Bratislava ♦ Budapest

aboard the Exclusively Chartered AMADEUS QUEEN

September 16 to 25, 2019

Dear UC Davis Alumni and Friends,

Goethe once said, “Music is liquid architecture, [and] architecture is frozen music.” The Danube River and the resplendent cities of Prague and Vienna, which inspired classical music’s Great Masters, are a visual symphony of landscape and architecture—rolling hillsides and terraced vineyards are in concert with medieval cities and stone castles—inspiring centuries of artists and resonating with travelers.

Join us for this comprehensive itinerary showcasing five countries in the heartland of central Europe. Our specially created itinerary features private performances from the musical heritage of Europe’s most accomplished composers, including Mozart and Beethoven; and opportunities to explore six UNESCO World Heritage sites, experience the rich history and dynamic legacies that contextualize the West’s art and architectural masterpieces. Enjoy three nights in the world-class city of Prague, the “City of a Thousand Spires,” in a deluxe, centrally located hotel before cruising the celebrated Blue Danube from Passau, Germany, to Budapest, Hungary. Travel aboard the exclusively chartered AMADEUS QUEEN—a deluxe river ship launched in 2018 that docks right in the heart of the cities we visit.

High notes of your experience include a distinctive schedule of exclusive, specially arranged expert lectures, private classical music performances, guided excursions in Prague and in each port of call along the Danube River, and an overnight stay in the fin-de-siècle grandeur of Vienna, Austria’s extraordinary capital.

This Symphony on the Blue Danube is a sublime composition that will strike a chord with virtuosos, art and architecture enthusiasts, historians and travelers of all interests. I encourage you to book now as this popular program has sold very quickly in the past.

Regards from UC Davis,

U.S./Prague, Czech Republic

Monday and Tuesday,
September 16 and 17

Depart the U.S. for Prague, the “City of a Thousand Spires,”
a UNESCO World Heritage site showcasing 600 years of virtually untouched architecture. Upon arrival, check into the deluxe INTERCONTINENTAL PRAHA HOTEL. Attend the private Welcome Reception Tuesday evening in the hotel.

Prague

Wednesday and Thursday,
September 18 and 19

On our guided walking tour, explore the diverse cultural legacy of Prague, celebrated for its grand combination of Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque architecture. Walk the winding lanes of the Staré Město (Old Town) to the Orloj, the ornate, 15th-century astronomical clock of the Old Town Hall, and see the iconic Charles Bridge lined with 17th- and 18th-century Baroque statues. Enjoy a specially arranged private tour and brief Mozart musical performance in the Estates Theatre, where the prodigy’s opera Don Giovanni premiered in 1787. Visit Europe’s oldest extant Jewish house of worship—the Gothic-style Old-New Synagogue in Josefov—and walk amongst the moss-covered, 15th-century headstones of the Old Jewish Cemetery.

On Thursday, tour the former residence of Bohemian royalty, the Hradčany complex of castles, churches and museums, whose spires dominate the city skyline. Visit the neo-Gothic St. Vitus Cathedral, the largest and most significant cathedral in Prague; see the Royal Mausoleum and the gem-encrusted St. Wenceslas Chapel, a Czech Gothic masterpiece.

By special arrangement, view original Beethoven manuscripts and enjoy a private string quartet concert in the magnificent, family-owned 16th-century Lobkowitz Palace.

Walk through the quaint “Golden Lane,” lined with small, Mannerist-style houses and workshops once occupied by castle goldsmiths, alchemists, artisans and guards. Author Franz Kafka was said to have lived here between 1916 and 1917.

Discover more of Prague’s time-honored treasures during the afternoon and evening at your leisure.

Prague/Passau, Germany

Friday, September 20

Travel through the bucolic wooded Czech and German countryside to Passau, where three legendary rivers—the Danube, Ilz and Inn—converge. Enjoy lunch in a historic, authentic German restaurant before the walking tour along the cobblestone streets of Altstadt, Passau’s Old Town. Visit the Baroque-style St. Stephan’s Cathedral, consecrated in the 12th century, and home to the largest pipe organ in Europe.

Embark the AMADEUS QUEEN, attend the Captain’s Welcome Reception and, following dinner, enjoy a short concert of classical music on board.

St. Stephan’s Cathedral organ is an acoustical marvel.

Melk, Austria/Dürnstein

Saturday, September 21

Visit the prestigious 900-year-old Benedictine Abbey of Melk, an Austrian Baroque masterpiece by Paul Troger, showcasing stunning 18th-century ceiling frescoes and priceless relics. The museum of the palatial kirche (church) displays the perfectly intact, multi-panel, 16th-century altarpiece created by Danube School painter Jörg Breu the Elder.

Choose to experience Rococo grandeur of Schönbrunn Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage site, an optional excursion.

A prestigious center of scholarship throughout the Middle Ages, today the abbey's library is a repository of 100,000 medieval manuscripts.

Later, dock in the charming medieval village of Dürnstein, situated below the hilltop ruins of Castle Kuenringer, where Richard the Lionheart was held prisoner after the Third Crusade. Stroll through the storybook village, stopping in the 15th-century Dürnstein Stiftskirche for a short, private organ concert.

This evening, cruise through the Danube's fabled Wachau Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site, where terraced vineyards blanket hillsides interspersed with striking medieval castle ruins.

Vienna

Sunday, September 22

Former seat of the Habsburg Empire, Vienna's historic center is a UNESCO World Heritage open-air museum of splendid Baroque architecture. The Ringstrasse, or Ring Boulevard, commissioned by Austro-Hungarian Emperor Franz Josef, showcases the impressive Vienna State Opera House and Hofburg Palace. Visit the Gothic-style Stephansdom (St. Stephen's Cathedral). In the intricately painted Sala Terrena, Vienna's oldest concert hall and where Mozart worked, performed and resided, enjoy a specially arranged performance, of Mozart's various composers' music. Peruse Vienna's cultural glories this afternoon and evening at your leisure.

Vienna/Bratislava, Slovakia

Monday, September 23

Pursue your interests this morning in Vienna or join the optional excursion to the UNESCO World Heritage-designated Schönbrunn Palace and Gardens, the lavish summer estate of the imperial Habsburgs. Here, in one of the grand salons, six-year-old Mozart first performed for Empress Maria Theresa and her daughter, the future Queen of France, Marie Antoinette.

This afternoon, en route to Bratislava, cruise through Austria's fertile Donau-Auen National Park, which preserves the last remaining major wetlands in central Europe. Nestled in the foothills of the dramatic Carpathian Mountain range, Bratislava overlooks the broad banks of the Danube; beautifully restored since the end of the Cold War, Slovakia's charming capital city depicts 21st-century life amidst its 1000-year-old history. On the guided tour of the Old Town, walk among some of central Europe's finest medieval, Renaissance and 19th-century architecture.

Cruise through the Wachau Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage site and region of great natural beauty and notable wines, to experience idyllic Dürnstein.

Brno Palace and Gardens, excursion.

Admire the Charles Bridge and its Baroque statues, the lively streets of Prague's Old Town, or Stare Mesto, then watch the medieval Astronomical Clock.

Visit the Romanesque, 14th-century Cathedral of St. Martin and the elaborate Primatial Palace; see St. Michael's Gate, Bratislava's oldest preserved medieval fortification, originally built in 1300. This evening, enjoy a delightful performance of classical music on board the ship.

Enjoy your visit to the Fisherman's Bastion.

Budapest, Hungary

Tuesday, September 24

Austrian-born, nevertheless the "most Hungarian Habsburg," Archduke Joseph is credited with creating in Budapest an imperial capital that rivaled Vienna. The embankments of the centuries-old twin cities of Buda and Pest facing each other across the Danube and the famous Buda Castle Quarter are a designated UNESCO World Heritage site.

Begin your tour in Pest to see the neo-Gothic limestone Parliament Building, built between 1884 and 1904 on the river's banks. Pass through Heroes' Square and admire the monuments honoring the Magyar chiefs who conquered Hungary in A.D. 896.

Cross the imposing Chain Bridge, linking river-level Pest to the hills of Buda on the opposite side of the Danube. Visit the late-19th-century, neo-Romanesque Fisherman's Bastion on Castle Hill. The terrace's turrets symbolize the seven Magyar tribes that settled in the Carpathian Basin; enjoy the exceptional views. Nearby is the Gothic-style St. Matthias Church, where Charles I, the last Habsburg ruler, was coronated in 1916.

On board the ship this evening, attend the Captain's Farewell Reception and Dinner, followed by a Hungarian folklore performance.

Budapest/U.S.

Wednesday, September 25

Continue on the Hungary's Parliament and Plains Post-Program Option or transfer to the airport for your return flight to the U.S.

During your leisure time, enjoy the opulence of the Vienna State Opera House, visible in its foyer.

View majestic Bratislava Castle, built in the ninth century, dominating the skyline high above the Danube River.

EXCLUSIVELY CHARTERED MS AMADEUS QUEEN

The elegant precision of Austria's native son, Mozart, inspired the meticulous crafting of the new AMADEUS QUEEN, launched in 2018 and featuring all the comforts of a refined and traditional hotel.

Musical Legacy of the HABSBURG EMPIRE

Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart

Since the 18th century, the lands encompassing the Danube River Valley—Austria, Hungary and Germany—and the Czech Republic have bequeathed to the world an unparalleled musical legacy.

The 1700s saw the creative genius of Johann Sebastian Bach, Franz Josef Haydn, Johann Pachelbel and Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart. In the 19th century, such musical titans as Ludwig van Beethoven, Franz Schubert, Johannes Brahms, Franz Liszt and Johann Strauss II reigned over the courts and orchestra halls of central Europe, backed by the generous patronage of the Habsburgs in Vienna.

This exclusive journey highlights the musical traditions of master composers and their enduring vitality. See the stage in Prague's prestigious Estates Theatre where Mozart premiered his famous opera Don Giovanni and attend a private performance of the great composer's works. Admire Europe's largest cathedral pipe organ in Passau's St. Stephan's Cathedral. View a collection of Beethoven's original manuscripts and attend a private performance of musical works by Beethoven and other master composers in royally commissioned Lobkowitz Palace. Enjoy a short organ recital within the 15th-century Dürnstein Stiftskirche. Stroll through the historic center of Vienna in the footsteps of Beethoven and Brahms, see the famous Vienna State Opera house and attend a private performance of Mozart's music at Sala Terrena, the oldest concert hall in the city. Enjoy classical music performances on board the ship.

The golden statue of Johann Strauss II immortalizes Vienna's rich musical legacy.

RELEASE OF LIABILITY, ASSUMPTION OF RISK AND BINDING ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

RESPONSIBILITY: Gohagan & Company, Cal Aggie Alumni Association, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (collectively "Gohagan"), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities, airline, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service or entertainment providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity or of any other third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or force majeure, acts of government, acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, bites from or attacks by animals, insects or pests, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof, sickness, illness, epidemics or the threat thereof, the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels, or other means of transportation, or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart timely or safely.

If due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner's risk. The right is reserved to decline to accept as a trip participant, or remove from a trip, without refund, any person Gohagan judges to be incapable of meeting the rigors and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other trip participants, leaders or third parties, or who Gohagan determines to detract from the enjoyment of the trip by others. Specific room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel or cruise line.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Ship schedules, port calls, hours of arrival and departure, sightseeing events, special programs and guest lecture series (if applicable), are subject to change or cancellation. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute motorcoach transportation using hotels, inns or lodges for cruise accommodations if necessary due to weather, water conditions or levels, other events of force majeure, mechanical or other conditions beyond the control of Gohagan. Gohagan is not responsible therefor and is not required to compensate passengers under these circumstances. Gohagan may cancel a trip (or an option) for any reason whatsoever; if so, its sole responsibility is to refund monies paid by the participant to it. Gohagan, however, is not required under these circumstances to refund the cost of any purchased travel insurance. Gohagan is not required to cancel any trip for any reason including without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. Gohagan is not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itinerary changes, even if Gohagan makes the flight arrangements or cancels the trip. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute vessels, hotels or attractions of a similar category for those listed in this brochure.

NOT INCLUDED: Taxes; passport, visas and associated fees; personal expenses such as laundry, telephone calls and Internet access; accident/sickness, trip cancellation, and baggage insurance; gratuities to ship and hotel personnel; optional sightseeing excursions; baggage charges on aircraft; local departure air/airport tax(es); airfare and associated local taxes, airport facility and security taxes and federal inspection fees not listed in the "Included Features" section of the brochure; transfers and baggage handling to/from airport/hotel/ship on day(s) of arrival and/or departure if you are arriving earlier or later than and/or departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s); any overnight on land due to flight schedule(s); meals, alcoholic or other beverages and all other services not specifically mentioned in the "Included Features" section.

AIRFARE: Airfare is subject to change and availability and, depending on the fare basis, likely is nonrefundable. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between you and the airline, even if purchased through Gohagan.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without notice.

PHYSICAL ACCESSIBILITY: All programs require physical independence and mobility. Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention or physical assistance (for example, the need for a wheelchair) must be reported in writing when you make your reservation. Travelers must be able to embark or disembark motorcoaches alone or with minimal assistance from your traveling companion and climb stairs and step over raised thresholds without assistance. Travelers requiring assistance must travel with a companion who will be responsible for handling equipment.

DISCOUNTED RESERVATIONS: Discounts apply only to those reservations received in the offices of Gohagan in writing, accompanied by the required deposit, by March 5, 2019. In the event a "discounted" reservation must be cancelled, no "replacement" reservation can be substituted at the discounted rate. A "replacement" reservation is a new reservation and can be substituted only at the full-fare tariff. Cancellation penalties may apply.
